

School Psychologists to Hold Annual Conference in Lexington

The 2008 Annual Conference of the Kentucky Association for Psychology in the Schools (KAPS) will be held from October 1-3, 2008 at the Radisson Plaza Hotel in downtown Lexington. The theme for this year's conference is "RESPOND". A variety of state and national speakers will be addressing such topics as RTI and SLD, grant writing, school safety, PBIS, dyslexia, screenings for behavior disorders, and much more!

If you are interested in attending the conference, please contact Dr. Kristen Kyriacou, KAPS President at (502) 485-6094 or Kristen.kyriacou@jefferson.kyschools.us
